KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

Smethport, Pa., Nov. 6, '89.

Dr. B. J. Kendall Co.:

Gentlemen:—I would like to testify to the benefit I have received from your Spavin Cure. I had a horse with a bad Spavin. Your Agent, Mr. Ogden, of Port Allegany, recommended your Spavin Cure. I used two bottles and it cured him. I have used it for Ringbone and Curb, and it has done its work well. I have used other Spavin Cures before, but I found that your Spavin Cure is the best of them all. I can recommend it to all horsemen.

Yours truly, WM. A. COZZI.

Dr. B. J. Kendall Co., Enosburgh Falls, Vt.

Gentlemen:—I purchased Kendall's Spavin Cure 1 with my horse, and found it a valuable remedy for Spavin, Lameness and Swellings. I have used it for Ringbone, Curb and Swellings, and it has done its work well. I have used other Spavin Cures before, but I found that your Spavin Cure is the best of them all. I can recommend it to all horsemen.

Yours truly, WM. A. COZZI.

—Vreeland's minstrels next week.

—The picnic season is about ended.

—Look out for Chevalier De Kontzki.

—Civil court convenes next Monday.

—But one more Saturday half holiday remains.

—The ringing of the school bell is heard once more.

—Lost—A coin, because the loser was not registered before September 24.

—If you have not as yet your summer vacation it is too late to think of it now.

—P. S. Sophie has just been appointed P. M. at Alden vice Miss Huff who had resigned.

—No artificial means are needed for rain making in this section. It rains without an effort.

—It will now cost anyone other than a G. A. R. veteran $100 to wear the badge or button of that order.

—The leaves have begun to put on autumnal dots, another indication that the "melancholy days" are approaching.

—Atlanta is 350,000 times as large as the sun and 11,300,000 times as far away from the sun as the earth. Its diameter is 31,000,000 miles.

—Smethport was well represented at the firemen's tournament at Olean last week, and again at the Labor Day celebration on Monday.

—Claude McAbee has secured the agency for the Bradford and Olean laundries. Orders left at Wells' drug store will receive prompt attention.

—Labor Day was observed in and around Smethport by the usual amount of labor being performed in all sensations. The men who labor for a living can't afford to waste so much time as are being turned into holidays.

—A find among the girls just now is to wear a four-leaf-clover in their shoes. The first young man who lifts his hat to a lady after she has placed the clover in her shoe is destined to marry her—no preventing providence.

—The Bolivar Breeze, published by brother Herrick of the Ceres Mail, which started in life a couple weeks ago, is the recipient of liberal patronage by the people of that community. It is ably conducted and a credit typographically.

—Edison is quoted as saying that ultimately one's house will be both lighted and heated at a cost which will not exceed sixty cents per season. If this be true "enthusiastic" cannot easily express the appearance upon the horizon of life any too soon.

—The number of drunken men seen upon our streets last Sunday was the subject of much comment, and a very pertinent question asked was, "where do they get their liquor?" Evidently a screw is loose somewhere, and sooner or later somebody will get into trouble.

—The various building operations in town are progressing finely. The work on the new church is being pushed with vigor, the fall season is up to the first story, Mrs. Freeman has her residence on the south side well advanced and the new residence being erected by L. W. Mason, on Main street, is rapidly nearing completion.

—Hon. C. M. Foster was 66 years old yesterday. A large number of Bradford people called at his pretty home on Foster avenue during the afternoon and evening to pay their respects, some of whom left valuable and handsome gifts. The honorable gentleman has a host of friends who will wish him many years more of good health, happiness and prosperity.—Sunday News, 6th.

—Evening parties have been the rage of late, and at least one of them has come to grief. On Friday evening last a party of young people visited a cornfield near East Smethport, and the owner learning who his visitors were, caused their arrest, placing the damages at $12. We do not care to give further publicity to this affair, as it was undoubtedly did in a spirit of fun, but it is nevertheless an act punishable by law, and is therefore, as is this case, sometimes rather expensive sport.

—Small towns usually have a reputation for breeding scandal and Smethport, we regret to say, is no exception to the rule. The last ridiculous report set afloat by the green eyed ghouls, involves two or three pure, lovely girls and a young man of good reputation. Friends of the parties slumbered, have investigated matters and found that the miserable lies emanate from that same rotten, infinite one source from which all previous ones have sprung. Every community must endure these pestiferous scandals.

—It is very gratifying to learn that the losses in the Ceres fire were largely covered by insurance. C. B. Roberts carried an insurance on his goods of $2000 which will very nearly cover his loss. Brother Herrick's loss on his printing office property will reach to the neighborhood of $1000 and he was insured to the extent of $1000. The building and contents of Geo. W. Hackett's drug store was insured at $3000.00 and he is insured for $3000.00. The Oswaya House, barn and opera house which were owned by V. Perry Carter, Esq., were insured, for $2,000 and $1,000 respectively. The Ceres Hotel was insured for $1,000. The insurance companies represented were the Home, Continental, Fire Association, Phoenix, Fire Association of Philadelphia, Hartford, Insurance Co. of North America, Queen, Liverpool, London and Globe, Niagara, Phoenix of Brooklyn, Royal, Western Assurance Co., Commercial Union, Imperial, Lancashire, Pennsylvania Fire, Hamburg Bremen, Fire Association of New York, Germania, Fire Association of Pittsburgh, Home of New York, Insurance Co. of North America
